

WHEREAS, The women of the United States and of South Dakota have a proud heritage which extends throughout history; and,

WHEREAS, Women in history have been instrumental in the advancement of women and the uplift of humanity in general; and,

WHEREAS, South Dakota has a rich cultural heritage of women represented in our state who have influenced the course of history; and,

WHEREAS, It would be beneficial to the citizens of South Dakota to reflect upon the achievements made by these women, while at the same time learning more about the women of South Dakota and the nation and their impact upon our lives; and,

WHEREAS, Women of South Dakota are proud of the leadership shown the pioneers of women's rights in advancing the status of women;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JACKSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of March 2-8, 1980, as in South Dakota and hope that every community will join in local efforts to recognize the contributions women have made in history for the good of all people.

WOMEN IN HISTORY WEEK

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-ninth Day of February, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty
